Title of the manuscript

First AUTHOR[1] and Second AUTHOR[2]

[1]Address 1
[2]Address 2

ABSTRACT. The length of the abstract should be between 150 to 5000 characters.

1. INTRODUCTION

This section includes Introduction of your manuscript.

2. SECTION1

3. SECTION2

4. SECTION3

5. CONCLUSIONS

This section includes Conclusions of your manuscript.

Author Contribution Statements ...

Declaration of Competing Interests ...

Acknowledgements Acknowledgements (if any).

REFERENCES

[1] Karakoç, F., Impulse effect on a population model with piecewise constant argument, in: Baigent, S., Bohner, M., Elaydi, S. (Eds.), Progress on Difference Equations and Discrete Dynamical Systems, Springer Proceedings in Mathematics & Statistics, Vol 341 (2020), 269–278. Proceedings of 25th ICDEA, UK, June 24–28, 2019.

[2] Kaymanlı, G. U., Şen, G. N., Ekici, C., Tzitzeica curves with q-frame in three-dimensional Minkowski space, Communications Faculty of Sciences University of Ankara Series A1 Mathematics and Statistics, 73(4) (2024), 957-969. https://doi.org/10.31801/cfsuasmas.1365949

[3] Lehmann, E. L., Casella, G., Theory of Point Estimation, Springer, New York, 2003.

[4] Özalp, N., Global Existence of Solutions and Quenching for Parabolic Mixed Boundary Value Problem, Ph. D. Thesis (1993), The University of Southwestern Louisiana.

[5] World Health Organization, 2025. Human rabies post-exposure prophylaxis workshop on supporting countries to build a case for investment: meeting report, Cape Town, South Africa, 23-26 September 2024. https://www.who.int/publications/i/item/9789240104143

[1] email1@mail.com; Orcid: 0000-0000-0000-0000
[2] Corresponding Author: email2@mail.com; Orcid: 0000-0000-0000-0000.